KNIGHTS TEMPLAR

EASTER SERVICE FOR MEMBERS OF ORDER AT GLENDALE
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

It seems fitting that the floral emblems of spring—the resurrection of nature—should also symbolize Easter and it was therefore pleasant to see spring flowers in variety decorating the Presbyterian Church for the special services on Sunday. Tulips, narcissi, violets and lilacs were there in beauty and fragrance as well as Easter lilies. On the walls and organ front were the shields and wreath framed mottoes of the Knights Templar and their banners were present together with "Old Glory" in a place of honor; for it was a Knights Templar Easter service for Hollywood Commandery N. D. and Glendale Commandery No. 53.

At about 10:45 the knights in full dress with white plumed hats and swords by their sides, entered the church where a large congregation practically filling every available space on the main floor, Sunday school annex and balcony, awaited them. The service was then conducted in the following order:

Voluntary—"To Spring" (Grieg), Miss Helen Rice, Organist.
Procession of Knights.
Hymn—"Onward, Christian Soldier."

Invocation—(Response).
Quartette—"The Shout of Victory" (Ashford), Miss Anna May Galloway, Mrs. Fannie Marple Retts, Mr. Allen McDaniel, Mr. Clifford Riggs.

Soprano Solo—"Hosannah in Excelsis," Mrs. C. L. Peckham.
Responsive Service by Knights—Led by O. E. Von Oven, Prelate.

Prelate: The Lord is in His Holy Temple!

Knights: Let all the earth keep silence before Him.

Prelate: From the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same.

Knights: My Name shall be great among the Gentiles;

Prelate: And in every place incense shall be offered unto My Name, and a pure offering;

Knights: For My Name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of Hosts.

Prelate: Break forth into joy, sing together, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem.

Knights: For the Lord hath comforted His people; He hath redeemed Jerusalem.

DEATH OF SALLIE ACER

Sallie Acer passed away in Glendale Saturday, April 3, 1920, at the age of 59 years. She had long been a resident of Burbank and vicinity having owned ranch property there. She was a sister-in-law of the late Florence Stough of San Diego and leaves a devoted daughter, Florence E. Reynolds, of Los Angeles. Funeral services will be held in the parlors of the Jewel City Undertaking Company Tuesday at 2 p. m. with interment at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Rev. Trundle of Los Angeles will have charge of the service.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH

RESURRECTION DAY APPROPRIATELY OBSERVED WITH GREAT SERVICES

The First Methodist Church had two great services yesterday. In the morning Dr. Crist preached on "The Seven Proofs of the Resurrection," quoting liberally from the Holy Scriptures to show the incontestable nature of the evidence establishing this great truth on which the Christian religion is founded. Peter, James, John, Matthew, Mark, Luke, Paul and others wrote of it and were either eye-witnesses or quoted directly from the testimony of those who had been. Paul said, "If Christ be not risen then are we of all men most miserable." The world does not doubt the resurrection of Christ even though skeptics may claim to do so. Prophets foretold it. Angels proclaimed it. Dr. Crist marshaled his proofs and presented them most convincingly to the great audience gathered to hear him. Sixty persons united with the church, making a total of 160 in the last six months.

At the evening service the large vested choir gave a splendid rendition of the oratorio, "The Holy City." It had been faithfully practiced and much praise was given the performance.

POULTRY SITUATION

W. H. VERITY ADMITS SOME DRAWBACKS YET IS OPTIMISTIC

W. H. Verity of 511 West Broadway, who has the largest poultry ranch in Glendale, says the food situation is the perplexing problem in his business. While there have been some recent small declines the general price tendency is upward. Close students of poultry raising have figured out that it costs now 30 cents a month to feed a hen, and it took only 17 cents three years ago. As a hen's average earning capacity is figured at less than $4 a year it will be seen that the margin of profit is very close. This takes into account egg sales for the market only. Of course there is a chance of greater profits if hatching eggs are sold and broilers and fryers raised for the market. The wholesale price of eggs a year ago at this time was 44 cents and now it is 39 cents.

Mr. Verity says there is a great future in the poultry business for Glendale and Burbank if a living profit can be figured, as this is considered the most healthful location in all the Southland. Fowls in this section are now entirely free from disease while those in the San Gabriel, Inglewood and other large centers of production are considerably diseased. Mr. Verity says there is no reason why this section should not become a second Petaluma, since conditions are ideal in every respect. He knows a number of men who are seriously considering going into the business on a large scale and are only awaiting the result of investigations into the food situation.

MINISTERS' RETREAT

Dr. E. H. Willisford left this morning for Catalina where he will attend the Congregational Ministers' Retreat. He will return the latter part of the week. Mr. Willisford is on the program to speak at the Thursday morning session.

This is the ninth year that the Congregational pastors of Southern California have gone to Catalina for conferences and rest. The sessions for addresses and discussions are held each morning and evening. The afternoons are left open for rest and recreation.

The day sessions are held out in the open, usually on one of the hilltops near Avalon. The pastors find the retreat helpful in many ways, in the exchange of ideas about methods and plans of church work, the instructive and inspirational addresses.

In the leisure hours some go fishing, others take mountain hikes, some seek a quiet spot and read a book that has long been neglected, others just rest, giving tired nerves a chance to relax. All gain fresh strength and faith to prosecute their work in their respective fields of labor.

Next Sunday evening Dr. Willisford will tell of some of his experiences while at Catalina.

DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION

More than a year ago the Greater Glendale Development Association was organized to supply the need of a "do-something" organization in Glendale, and this association under its various departments has been busy working out problems for the good of the community. The industrial committee has been exceedingly busy and great good has resulted from its efforts. One of the characteristic dinners will be held at the White Inn tomorrow evening at 6:15 o'clock. Kent, Huntley and Lusby will tell you how you may be admitted to the dining room of festivities at this meeting of exchange of optimistic ideas.

HELMAN-COLTON

A pretty but simple Easter wedding was celebrated this morning, April 5, 1920, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Willisford when Ray E. Helman and Miss Edna E. Colton of 111 South Central avenue, were united in marriage. They were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Hazel Colton and by J. D. Mac Kinnon. A white and green color scheme had been carried out in the floral decorations for the quiet event with ferns, lilies and Cherokee roses. The bride was very charming in a going-away gown of dark blue satin. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Helman left for a brief wedding trip. On their return they will make their home in Glendale.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair night and Tuesday.

COSTLY GOVERNMENT CONTROL

RAILROAD ADMINISTRATION ASKS ANOTHER LARGE APPROPRIATION TO WIND UP ITS CONTROL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Additional appropriations of $436,000,000 to wind up the federal control of railroads was asked of the House Appropriation Committee today by Swager Shorley, director of finance for the Railroad Administration. Should his request be granted it would make a grand total of $1,886,000,000 that Congress will have voted the railroads out of the federal treasury.

OUTLAW UNION STRIKERS

WALK-OUT OF YARD SWITCHMEN AT CHICAGO CRIPPLES RAILROAD SERVICE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, April 5.—Martial law may be declared in the Chicago railroad yards as a result of the strike of switchmen on eleven roads which is imperiling the country's food supply and wrecking the railroad passenger and freight schedules, officials said here today.

The strikers claimed 9000 switchmen were out and predicted the complete tie-up of freight traffic and serious impairment of passenger service. Railroad officials admitted that freight traffic was operating on a twenty-five per cent basis but declared this was as much due to the storm which swept the middle west yesterday as to the strike. The strikers claimed that $15,000,000 worth of perishable freight laid in Chicago yards and will be lost unless their demands for higher wages are heeded.

The regular union switchmen denounce the strike as illegal and say the striking switchmen are members of an outlaw union.

TEUTONS IN NEUTRAL ZONE

FORTY THOUSAND GERMAN TROOPS HAD ENTERED RUHR DISTRICT UP TO 7 O'CLOCK LAST NIGHT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, April 5.—The movement of German troops in the Ruhr district continued today, the Foreign Office was advised. The Foreign Office said that up to 7 o'clock last night 40,000 Teuton troops had entered the neutral zone. This force, it was estimated, comprised two-thirds of the forces which General Von Watter had concentrated to move against the Westphalian Communists.

IRELAND'S EASTER UPRISING

FIVE HUNDRED SINN FEINERS UNDER ARREST; REBEL ARMY CONFISCATING ESTATES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

DUBLIN, April 5.—More than 500 Sinn Feiners had been arrested in a new series of raids by police and the military following an Easter uprising, according to estimates at Dublin Castle today. The south of Ireland still was under virtual martial law. The north of Ireland was completely cut off from telephonic communication today. Cordons of troops surrounded Dublin, Derry, Cork, Limerick, Newry and Dundalk. Two British warships were lying in the Kingston harbor a few miles from Dublin.

An unusual and ominous movement was reported from west Ireland where bands estimated at about 1700 men marched through the country confiscating thousands of acres of land in Counties Roscommon and Galway, driving the owners off the estates. Ten tenants were forced to leave one estate.

Officials today at Dublin Castle estimated the damage to property in the entire outbreak at more than $500,000 which they said the taxpayers would be forced to pay. A number of bridges were burned. The total number of police headquarters bombed in the uprising throughout Ireland numbered ninety-nine at 2 p. m. In Dublin troops were confined to barracks. Officers had orders to be prepared for any eventualities.

MISSING HEIRESS FOUND

BODY BELIEVED TO BE THAT OF JEANNE DE KAY RECOVERED FROM LAKE MICHIGAN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, April 5.—Jeanne De Kay, the missing heiress, has been found. The body of a young woman taken from Lake Michigan today by the police was identified as that of the heiress by Mrs. Gertrude H. Britton, Hull House social worker. According to the police the body of the young woman fitted the description of Miss De Kay. Black oxfords and a corset, both labeled, "Made in Switzerland," were worn by the girl the police found.

Miss De Kay, a ward of Jane Addams of Hull House, disappeared several months ago. Her father is a wealthy American now living in Switzerland. The Swiss markings on the clothing caused the belief on the part of the police that they had found the missing heiress.

DOUBLE ANNIVERSARY

MR. AND MRS. PIGG CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING AND HIS BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Pigg celebrated their silver wedding anniversary and Mr. Pigg's birthday yesterday with a 6 o'clock tea at their home, 639 N. Kenwood. The house was a bower of bloom, the rooms being decorated with Easter lilies, Cecil Brunner roses, sweet peas and carnations. The tables were made beautiful with Cecil Brunners and the place cards, hand painted, bore as appropriate emblems old-fashioned bridal bouquets painted on in white and silver. The bridal table was decorated with large crystal baskets holding sweet peas and pink carnations, with a canopy of plumosas, and crystal candlesticks holding pale green wax candles. At this table were seated Mr. and Mrs. Pigg, Mrs. Ewell Smith, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Mattison B. Jones. A pleasing feature, drawing attention to the double nature of the anniversary was when Mrs. Pigg came in, wheeling a tea wagon on which was a large wedding cake decorated in bride roses and loving birds and bearing 25 lighted white candles. Amid great applause Mr. and Mrs. Pigg blew out the candles. During the evening each guest, as well as host and hostess contributed to the entertainment of the company, making up a very enjoyable program. Mrs. Pigg wore her daughter's wedding dress of silver lace over white satin. She and Mr. Pigg received many beautiful and valuable silver presents.

Those participating in the evening's festivities were Mrs. M. Ewell Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Phillips, son Jerry and daughter Anna Ewell, of Los Angeles; R. M. Jackson and wife, Mattison B. Jones, wife and daughter Winifred, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans and daughter Catherine, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Woodberry, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Furst, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pigg and sons, Dudley and Billie.

SUNRISE SERVICE

About 200 people gathered on the hill at the north end of Louise St. about 6 o'clock Sunday morning to participate in the Easter Sunrise Service held there annually by the various young people's societies of the city.

It was an ideal morning, and was a wonderful inspiration just to get above the valley before the noise of the day had commenced. Then the song service, led by C. C. Sprague, C. E. State field secretary of California, and the wonderful message given by Dr. J. G. Hill of U. S. C. brought all closer to the Master and showed how necessary it is to have some other occupation in life besides effort for merely material ends. The musical program included a vocal duet, "Have Thine Own Way, Lord," by Misses Dick and Elizabeth Mottern, a saxophone duet by Misses Helen Inglewood and Agnes Brown, and a vocal solo by Miss Dick. A little portable organ played by Miss Mottern provided an accompaniment for the song service.

DISTINGUISHED GLENDALE GUESTS

For the past week Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Mangum of 416 Patterson avenue have enjoyed a constant social whirl of dinners, luncheons and sight-seeing trips with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Buzby, the well-known Keystone Oil and Grease millionaires of Philadelphia, Penn., who are staying at the Alexandria Hotel, Los Angeles. Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Mangum were dinner guests at the Alexandria. Monday evening the fifth, Mr. and Mrs. Mangum will be host and hostess to Mr. and Mrs. Buzby at a special Spanish dinner to be served at picturesque La Ramada. As enthusiastic boosters of our beautiful city they hope to convince this much-traveled couple that Glendale is the garden spot in which to live.

SPEEDY BUSINESS TRIP

H. L. Miller together with his attorney, James McBryde, motored to San Luis Obispo Friday on a land deal. They arrived at destination at 1 p. m. Friday, completed the deal—Mr. Miller buying a valuable piece of acreage and down back to the Potter Hotel in Santa Barbara, returning home Saturday noon. They enjoyed a very pleasant trip and found good roads.

MET MANY GREAT MEN

FEATURE WRITER FOR NEW YORK DAILY TALKS ENTERTAININGLY OF HIS WORK

A. R. Boyden, who recently came to Glendale from New York City, where for fourteen years he has been on the staff of the daily Globe as a specialty writer, is a most ardent admirer of the city he has chosen as a home during the three years' leave his paper has granted him in which to recover his health. He has leased the place at 925 North Louise, where the lot extends back 250 feet, giving a great deal of space for gardening, which Mr. Boyden expects to utilize to the last inch. He says he knows nothing about gardening but is an apt learner and will easily master all the details of it. He already has several beds of hardy vegetables planted and coming on famously. He never tires of gazing on mountain views spread out before him and says in all his travels he has seen nothing to equal Glendale for scenic beauty, especially in its surroundings.

Mr. Boyden never got overseas during the late war, but was badly gassed while receiving training in one of the camps on this side, and that prevented him from going across.

Mr. Boyden compares the Los Angeles papers rather unfavorably with those of New York, saying they are not careful as to detail when writing up celebrities and they fail to give the local coloring if there happens to be any. He met nearly all of the great European statesmen, diplomats, ambassadors and military men who have visited this country in the past few years, it being his duty to meet all such in New York harbor before they landed. He thus became personally acquainted with most of them. Very few really great men are unapproachable, he finds, but on the contrary are very democratic in their manner and anxious to create a good impression. He met and interviewed the first King who ever landed on our shores, Albert of Belgium, and had more than one agreeable talk with him and his Queen. The late Gaby Deslys, the actress who was in the limelight both in this country and Europe for a number of years, he numbered among his acquaintances and he can relate many anecdotes of her life on this side.

Mr. Boyden was a correspondent in Mexico for a few years and he has most decided opinions on the characters of some of the prominent men of that disturbed country. He regards Carranza as a highly puffed up man of very moderate ability, childishly fond of pomp and display and with small regard for honesty and square dealing. He considers Obregon as the ablest man in Mexico since the lamented death of Gen. Felipe Angeles a few months ago at the command of Carranza when captured at the head of some of Villa's followers. Villa, he says, is not nearly so black as he has been painted, many of the cruel deeds charged against him having really been committed by Carranzistas. He was in Mexico City during the occupation of Vera Cruz by U. S. marines and soldiers and was in great danger of death for a time, but was saved through the intervention of personal friends.

SOUTHWEST LEAGUE

GLENDALE WELL REPRESENTED AT CONVENTION TO UNIFY COLORADO CONTROL

Glendale was well represented at the Convention of the League of the Southwest by delegates from the official staff of the city and from civic organizations, the Greater Glendale Development Association, Chamber of Commerce, and other bodies. The list of those who were present at the Saturday afternoon meeting included: L. T. Rowley, W. E. Hewitt, Frank H. Vesper, Roy L. Kent, and R. G. Daley, the last named representing the engineering department of the City of Glendale. J. H. Braly was also in attendance. Mr. Daley is to submit a report at the meeting of the Greater Glendale Association this week.

Commenting on the convention Frederick Baker, who was intensely interested in the addresses said: "The main purpose of this League of the Southwest is to work out plans to develop the basin of the Colorado River and especially con-

CHINA'S PLAY INSTINCT NORMAL

A teacher in one of the girls' schools in Peking, China, has found that although the play instinct of Chinese children has not been widely cultivated, these youngsters have capacities for play much like normal Americans. She was skeptical at first of being able to interest the little Chinese girls, but one afternoon she took six of them to a vacant lot to try them out. She began some games. Before the play had proceeded very far, the girls were in raptures, and when the teacher and her six Play Pioneers had to leave at dusk, they counted more than eighty little Chinese girls and boys in the games. Many of them had baby sisters or brothers strapped to their backs. She said they followed her for three blocks, asking when she was coming again, and if she would teach them more games.

Another incident indicating that China's play instinct is normal is told of a group of oldsters—coolies in Shantung who were sent from France. A man who was born in China and was a bit skeptical about the Chinese desire for play tried out the playground idea with the coolies. He took them to an open space, got a football and told them the principles of rugby. They were so eager to get into the game that he soon had two hundred lined up on each side. One "team" was "The Shirts" and the other, not having on that article of apparel, was "The No Shirts." The teacher was in the center, and says he never had such a thrill even at the kick-off of a Yale-Harvard game as came when he realized that the four hundred coolies had caught the first gleam of what real play is.—World Outlook.

INSANE ASYLUM DELIVERY

FIFTEEN ESCAPE FROM HOSPITAL FOR CRIMINAL INSANE AT CHESTER, ILLINOIS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHESTER, Ill., April 5.—Nine maniacs, desperate, and convicted of murders or criminal assault, today roamed this district after their escape from the State Hospital for the criminal insane here. Fifteen escaped but six were recaptured. Heavily armed posses searched the country-side today for the fugitives while frightened women and children remained in tightly barred farm houses.

STRIKE CRISIS IN NEW YORK

RAILROAD ATTEMPT TO HANDLE TERMINAL FREIGHT OPPOSED BY 35,000 DOCK AND MARINE WORKERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, April 5.—A crisis in the strike of the New York harbor and marine workers is expected today when the railroads are to attempt to handle the freight at terminals. Union leaders claimed 35,000 freight handlers, checkers and teamsters would refuse to handle the cargoes.

FRENCH INTENTIONS IN GERMANY

U. S. WILL ASK AS TO RUMORS THAT FRENCH WILL OCCUPY COBLENZ AND COLOGNE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The United States is expected soon to make an inquiry of France as to her intentions with regard to advancing further into Germany, it was learned. This government probably will ask how far the French are prepared to go and will inquire as to the truth of the reports that the French intend to occupy Coblenz, Cologne and other cities that are in the areas occupied by the American and British troops.

FRIENDLY DISPUTE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—A dispute of long standing between more than 3000 men is to be settled today or tomorrow when the battleships New Mexico, Mississippi and Idaho leave this port for San Diego.

The dispute is a friendly one. The men comprise the crews and officers of the vessels. Which is the fastest of the three? A thousand or more will tell you, "the New Mexico." As many more contend the Mississippi is, while the remaining crew will proclaim to the world the Idaho can beat 'em both.

Anyway, the commanders of the three have orders to send the battleships through the water at the greatest speed their huge turbines can develop. The vessels are to be present when the British cruiser Renown arrives at San Diego with the Prince of Wales aboard.

Much is said to have been wagered on the outcome of the trial.

Judge (to witness): "Why didn't you go to the help of the defendant in the fight?"

Witness: "I didn't know which was going to be the defendant."—Boston Transcript.

THE SPIRIT OF MEMORIALS

As the spring blossoms into summer, we feel, some of us, the absence of those dear ones who have passed to "the beyond." We miss their kindnesses, their caresses. Ought we not give actual expression to the loving remembrance in which they are held?

We cannot honor our loved ones more, nor perpetuate their memory more effectively than by erecting a monument or marker properly carved, as a lasting tribute to our affection for them.

Easter markers can be had by placing your order at once with Glendale Monument Works, H. J. Reinhard, Proprietor, 1411 S. San Fernando Boulevard, near Forest Lawn. Phone Glendale 1246 or residence, 742-W.

Personals

L. N. Hagood of 215 West Chestnut Street is moving today into his new home on North Orange Street.

Miss Varena Peet of 337 West Lexington Drive spent the Easter holidays in Los Angeles with relatives.

O. M. Newberry of 803 North Pacific avenue reported to the police that his chicken yard was raided last night and 14 hens and a rooster stolen.

J. H. Orth and wife of 153 South Central Ave. are adding another bedroom to their house, giving them eight rooms. The improvement is to cost around $500.

Miss Dorothy Morton of this city entertained a fine audience with a classic dance at a special program put on at the Victor Theatre in Burbank Saturday night.

H. C. Timothy of 318 North Kenwood, who is a traveling salesman with Southern Arizona as his territory is home to visit his family for a few days.

Fred Huffman and wife, who were living in the old Wannamaker place, East Wilson Avenue, opposite the ice plant, traded that place for a ranch near Beaumont and moved there a few days ago.

Mrs. E. F. Archer, who teaches school near Banning, was here to spend Saturday and Sunday with her son, Lyle, who is living with E. H. Learned and family in the Grand View district.

Friday afternoon Alice Fuelscher of 102 North Orange street entertained a party of nine guests in honor of her ninth birthday. Games were enjoyed during the afternoon and before leaving the guests were served with ice cream, cake and candy.

Harold Latter, who is here for a few days from San Francisco, was guest of honor at a little supper party Sunday evening at which Miss Waunita Emery was hostess, covers being laid for Mr. Latter, Miss Margaret Lusby, Evans Chaney and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Oehrli of San Francisco are spending several months in Glendale. While they have never resided in Glendale, Mr. Oehrli owns considerable real estate here and they are looking forward to the possibility of making Glendale their future home.

Mrs. H. C. Nicholaus of 337 W. Wilson Avenue, who was operated on for appendicitis four months ago and had a relapse after being taken home from the hospital, her life being in danger for many weeks, took a turn for the better a few days ago and is now slowly recovering.

Mrs. John H. Jackson of 332 N. Orange is now in Chicago having been summoned there a few days ago from Danville, Ky., where she had been visiting her daughter, Elizabeth. Mrs. A. M. Feland, Jr., and the new granddaughter, by news that her son Morris' wife was seriously ill.

Melville G. Musser and family, after living three or four months in Los Angeles, have returned to Glendale to stay and are now occupying a part of J. E. Peters' home at 209 North Orange. They had so "gotten the habit" of living in Glendale after 12 years' experience in the pleasant pastime that no other place seemed like home.

Mrs. C. B. Hawke of Chicago, arrived a few days ago to visit her grandmother, Mrs. Jennie McMurray, of 333 West Lomita Avenue, and her mother, Mrs. Grable, also of Chicago, who has been here for several months taking care of Mrs. McMurray. They all three expect to go to Chicago soon, the latter to spend two years with her daughter and granddaughter.

Sunday afternoon Owen Emery had the pleasure of entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Ellingsworth who had come south from San Francisco to see something of Southern California before returning to their home in Portland. Mrs. Ellington filled the role of Godmother to Sergeant Emery during the war when she was Miss Cecil Miller and he was very much delighted to see her again.

WINTER GUESTS RETURN TO EASTERN HOMES

E. W. Lyon of 214 North Louise went to Los Angeles last Friday to bid farewell to eight families living in Lyons, Kansas, all his old neighbors, who had been spending the winter here and in Los Angeles. All were reluctant to leave this land of sunshine and flowers and Mr. Lyon confidently expects that more than half of them will be back here next winter to locate. Mr. Lyon thinks that a great many well-to-do people who came out from Kansas and other eastern states simply for the winter, were so impressed with weather conditions here as compared with those "back home" have already made up their minds to locate in the favored land. Glendale has a chance to secure as permanent residents many desirable people of this class, especially if friends living here will keep constantly before their minds in letters the many advantages our city possesses.

INCREASE IN NUMBER OF MOVIE THEATERS

The growth in the number of motion picture theaters since the war closed has really been phenomenal. For several years Glendale has been provided for in this respect far beyond cities of her size and now another and larger one is in course of construction. Pasadena has six, one of the largest having been constructed within the past year. Los Angeles has been considered well supplied in this line, but right now four new ones to cost around $2,000,000 each, are under way.

EASTER AT TROPICO PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A large congregation gathered at the hour of morning service for Easter worship. Simple decorations of lilies and ferns had been arranged by the young people of the church. The reception of new members added to the gladness of the service. The choir, with Mrs. H. E. Fry as accompanist, sang a beautiful Easter anthem, "The Triumph." Rev. O. P. Rider, the pastor, preached from the text John 11:25-26—"Jesus said unto her, 'I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth on me though he die yet shall he live and whosoever liveth and believeth on me shall never die.'"

EASTER IN LUTHERAN CHURCH

Easter this year with the Lutheran congregation and its friends was a most happy event. The day opened for many by attending the Sunrise Service on the Hill. This was followed by a record-breaking attendance in the Sunday School, as well as offering. The little tots just crowded and jammed the Primary Department.

At 11 o'clock a congregation, larger than usual assembled to do honor to the memory of the Resurrection and celebrate the Holy Communion. The scheme of the Easter decorations was purple, white and green. Lilies, purple and white iris, acacia, smilax and beautiful roses did their share toward the Easter glory. Seven members were received into fellowship as follows, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kohr and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chase, of Salina, Kas. Miss Mary Louise Hand, Miss Hannah Takala and Russell Sherman of Glendale. The last two were received by the solemn rite of confirmation.

The pastor's Easter message was forceful and full of encouragement, tender and inspiring, "Abundant Life," based on John 10:10, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly."

The preparatory service was participated in by the entire congregation with fervor and zeal. This was followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper, with all its heart-searching and soul-warming suggestions looking toward the blessed hope.

The evening services were none the less helpful and good. At 6:30 the Endeavorers had a meeting full of zeal and warmth. At 7:30 parents and children and friends gathered to take part in the Sunday School Easter program. Mr. Harry Paseman, the lay-reader of the congregation, gave a very helpful talk on "The Resurrection and Its Message." This was followed by most beautiful colored pictures of the Lord's Last Great Week, beginning with the "Triumphal Entry" and ending with the "Ascension on Olivet." Thus the entire day was replete with the most solemn and sacred memories that will be a continual inspiration to Christian thought and service.

There will be a meeting of all solicitors at the Lutheran church at 7:45 tonight addressed by Dr. Thompson of Los Angeles. Any person wishing to make a contribution to the fund can leave it at the Bank of Glendale on Brand boulevard.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

With standing room at a premium Rev. C. A. Cole preached yesterday morning at the Christian Church on "What If Christ Had Not Died?" The entire service was impressive and appropriate to the great Easter spirit commemorative of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The choir under the direction of Mrs. Calvin Whiting made a deep impression upon the large audience, singing three special Easter anthems. Mrs. Floyd Mercer, a recent comer to Glendale, sang, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth" by Handel. In addition to those uniting with the church during the two weeks' evangelistic meetings, ten persons came into the fellowship at this service.

Last night to another large audience, Evangelist Root delivered a powerful sermon on "The Resurrection, the Supreme Proof of the Deity of Christ." Laying down a foundation of proof of Christ's divinity in the world-wide influence of His work and teachings and stating the reasonable proofs outside of Revelation as to the necessity of a resurrection, the speaker led up to the proof of Christ's divinity by the fact of His resurrection. From a chart upon which was the drawing of an arch the following facts were used in proof of Christ's Deity, each being a stone in the arch: His teachings. His miracles, His death, the testimony of His enemies, of His apostles, of God His Father, and as the keystone without which the arch would fall—the resurrection. A formidable array of Scripture was used to convince all of the supreme importance of the resurrection. Stress was laid upon the individual, penitent believer in Christ, coming into Christ by obedience expressed in baptism, a symbol of the death, burial and resurrection of Christ and upon his continuing in Christ in communion, prayer and service.

The church auditorium was a bower of beauty with Easter lilies and other white flowers intertwined with ferns and other greenery.

The meetings will continue this week. The topic for tonight is "The Love of God."

sider the problems of flood control, water storage and the conservation of hydro-electric power. The territory embraced in the basin includes parts of seven states and a million and a half acres of land in California alone will be affected, most of it in the Imperial Valley and Palo Verde. Four governors were in attendance and there was a remarkable address by William Jennings Bryan urging water and electric power development to be owned and operated by the government or by governmental agencies on behalf of the people instead of being exploited for private profit.

"Senator Owen of Oklahoma also made a strong address setting forth the importance of this development of the Colorado River basin for the progress and prosperity of the whole Southwest country.

"A remarkable address was likewise made by T. W. McDewitt, president of Los Angeles Cotton Exchange, telling of the wonderful success that has attended the raising of cotton both in the Salt River Valley in Arizona and in the Imperial Valley in California, especially the long staple cotton which is now selling for $1.00 per pound with an unlimited market and a crop return as high as $400 per acre. He said that land under the Roosevelt Dam in the Salt River Valley that a few years ago was selling for $5.00 an acre is now bringing $800.00 per acre. He also stated that the greater part of the San Joaquin Valley is adapted to this crop and this will also apply to the San Fernando Valley in which we are especially interested.

"One of the main ideas is to construct a series of large impounding reservoirs near the head waters of the different streams that will reduce the flood volume and thus lessen the danger below. At the same time almost equally important is the storage of this water for irrigation of the land and the development of power at points where there is sufficient drop to generate great quantities of hydro-electric energy. There are several thousand acres under the Laguna dam just above Yuma. The idea will be to link up all these projects of the southwest and reconcile conflicting interests and conflicting engineering problems. The Colorado is the greatest undeveloped resource in the United States today and the greatest amount of undeveloped land is tributary to it. It is also the richest land in the United States capable of supporting the largest population."

Despite the fact that quite a number of winter visitors have returned to their homes in the East there is still a great demand for rental property. So many of Glendale's visitors liked the city so well that they decided to stay, and though some have bought property and settled down, others are still depending on renting. People fairly haunt the Evening News office asking to be told in advance if there are houses advertised for rent, and some are still being compelled to go elsewhere because there is nothing for rent in Glendale.

A WORD TO THE WISE

It is our desire to bring home to you the fact that our bank can help you to a large extent in financial affairs.

The price of prosperity is industry and economy and those who will not pay the price reap only penury.

We all make enough money to become comfortably established but it is only the wise few who save it.

BOOKS IN PLACE OF BOTTLES

Cupboards and shelves behind the glittering mahogany bars, which once housed rows of variegated bottles, now shelter rows of books of all sorts. The former saloon has become, in many instances, the corner library for the service of the neighborhood.In many places, former saloons have been turned into stores in which have been installed collections of the best sort of reading matter as branches of the main public library or, as in communities which have lacked library service, adjuncts to the library of the nearest city. This extension of service is encouraged by the American Library Association, in its "Books for Everybody!" movement, now under way throughout the nation, and it has met general approval. The enlarged program of the Association purposes to spread the doctrine of self-education through libraries by opening avenues of opportunity heretofore closed to a large percentage of the people. It is estimated that 60,000,000 persons in the United States today have inadequate library service and to remedy this, with the aid of other library agencies, the Association aims to bring the best of reading matter within easy access of every man, woman and child in the country.Those in charge of the collections established in those places which were once saloons report a large demand for books, both fiction and on technical subjects. Persons who have never had much acquaintance with books are becoming regular patrons and the circulation is constantly growing. Promotion of this phase of spreading American ideals through self-instruction is one of the principal aims of the American Library Association. To carry on the work, librarians, library trustees and friends of libraries are obtaining a fund of $2,000,000, but no intensive drive is being conducted.

THE BACHELOR TAX

When France, a few years ago, through its chamber of deputies, decided to levy a 10 per cent tax on bachelors, it was not setting any precedent nor doing anything new under the sun. On the contrary, the bachelor tax is as old as nations.
Almost all peoples have penalized bachelorhood. Not that they have regarded it as a state of life singularly blessed, or that they envied the bachelor his freedom. The bachelor tax is a means of national defense, aside from the financial return accruing from it directly.
France finds her population decreas-ing, while that of Germany, her hereditary enemy, increases. The tax is levied with the hope not only of direct financial gain but also of encouraging early marriages and encouraging larger families, to the end that larger armies may be recruited for the national safety. The ancient Romans did it, and probably other less civilized peoples before them.Even America, faced with no such necessity—with, indeed, a constantly growing population and rapidly increasing wealth—levies a tax on bachelors. Does not our income tax give the married man $1000 exemption more than is allowed the gentleman of single blessedness? We figure, too, on placing the tax where it can most easily be borne but may there not also be the hope that the extra thousand dollars' exemption will make the bachelor look with envious eye upon the benedict?VARIETY IS THE SPICE OF WITCH DOCTORINGNo old-fashioned "racket store" shows such a variety of wares as an herb doctor's booth in the municipal market at Durban, South Africa, which displays, among other things: Snake skins, birds, feathers, dead insects, porcupine quills, bits of bark, horse hair, dung and bottled beer.
These are all pharmaceutical aids and are prescribed by the best of witch doctors. There are hundreds of thousands of them holding in fear over a hundred and twenty million people in Africa.The theory of the African native regarding disease is that an enemy casts a spell which enters the body and must be cast out or smelled out.
Charms and prescriptions are used in the process.One of the prescriptions calls for:
The heart and eyes of a lion, the fat and flesh of an elephant, the hide of a rhinoceros, the second layer of a hippopotamus skin, all these to be mixed with the bark of many trees and soaked in the blood of a cow or a sheep. The whole mix-up is solemnly incinerated. The ashes are made into a powder and taken internally.It seems logical to believe the local undertaker is called in.—World Outlook.

MAKE FOR BUSINESS SUCCESS

The foundations for success in business are work, perseverance and character. Different men who have triumphed in various spheres of business may set down their own experiences and views in other ways, but you will practically always find that the summing up comes to those three items in the end.To be trusted is a greater compliment than to be loved.

EASTER COMMUNION

SPECIAL MUSICAL PROGRAM AND
OTHER SERVICES AT CON-GREGATIONAL CHURCHBeautiful and satisfying were the Easter services at the Glendale Congregational church. At the Sunday school in addition to the regular program there were special exercises by two classes. Four girls in Mrs.
Chapman's class—Mary Jo Phillips, Guilla Smith, Viola Van Pelt and Josephine Franklin sang: "Joy Cometh in the Morning," Margery Yarrick serving as accompanist. Five boys from the class of Mrs. H. W. Yarrick had a pretty exercise assisted by Gladys White and Margery Yarrick who sang "Oh Calvary!" A plain wooden cross stood upon the platform and as the song was concluded the boys, wearing black and white surplices and carrying Easter lilies, advanced to the platform and tied the lilies upon the cross until it was completely covered, the action being followed by a dialogue about the conversion of the cross into a thing of beauty. The boys then sang "In the Cross of Christ I Glory," the group including Wayne Yarrick, Gordon McRae, Jack Alvord, Kenneth White and John Blake Franklin.The church service, which was very largely attended, included the baptism of two infants, the reception of members followed by a beautiful communion service. The quartette which includes Blake Franklin, Mrs.
A. R. Chapell, Mrs. Hartley Shaw, and L. P. Abell, with Mrs. Abell as accompanist, then gave a fine program of Easter music which included solos by each member of the quartet. At the evening service the musical program and the special Sunday school exercises were repeated and the pastor, Dr. E. H. Willisford, preached on "The Risen Christ."Makhan is the Hindu word for "a large house," while Mukken is the word for "butter." The similarity of the two names caused complications for a fervent young minister who wished to preach on the glories of the Celestial City. The text which he actually announced to his congregation was:"In my Father's house there is much butter."—World Outlook.

NEMESIS

Nemesis was a goddess of justice and retribution. In Greek mythology Nemesis was a goddess personi-fying allotment, of the divine distribution to every man of the precise share of fortune, good and bad.A colored sentinel challenged another colored soldier who seemed to be carrying something inside the lines. "Who goes there?" he asked.
"Lieutenant with a jug of gin," was the answer. "Pass, Lieutenant! Halt, gin!" commanded the sentry.

Mr. Riggs the little adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clem Moore was baptized by Dr. Edmonds as Evelyn Blossom Moore, the baptismal group including besides the pastor and parents, Prelate Von Oven, Grand Chaplain Mattison B. Jones, and Trustee Clendenin.As a preliminary to his sermon Dr. Edmonds welcomed the knights, greeting them as personal friends, and saying: "I trust God may spare your lives for many years to come and that you may stand more and more for the ideals on which your order rests. I trust whatever you do in word or deed you will do for the glory of God. My text is taken from the 14th chapter of Job, the 14th verse: 'If a man die, shall he live again?' He said in part:"This is the greatest question of all the ages and it would be well if we could go out from this house with some definite answer. The great danger we face is that we shall magnify the resurrection and fail to emphasize the risen Christ.
There are too many who have too little room in their lives for the Christ of the resurrection. It is one thing to believe in the resurrection and another to receive into your life the Christ of the resurrection.
If He did not rise from the dead, I am without hope and those I call my loved ones are without hope.
This existence which I experience today is but a small span compared with the existence to which I look forward."The question has been answered and will continue to be answered in the life of Christ. If He rose from the dead there can be no question concerning our resurrection from the dead."The pastor then set forth the belief in immortality as recorded in both the Old and the New Testament, briefly reviewing the trials to which God permitted the Devil to subject Job and the unflinching faith in the face of every form of human suffering which enabled him to say: "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord." To this question: "If a man die shall he live again?" the wonderful life of Job was a sufficient answer, the pastor declared. He showed that the ancient Egyptians whose civilization along certain lines is said to have been in advance of our own, had no doubt of immortality, that back of their tombs and obelisks was the thought that this life is but the beginning. He showed that the Greeks and Romans believed in the immortality of their heroes, that the cave dweller buried with the body of his child the playthings and the useful tools he would need upon awakening from his long sleep into immortality, and that the Green-lander lowered into the grave with his child the body of the dog playmate that the child might not be alone in his new life. The American Indian, he pointed out, has his "happy hunting ground." Said he:
"All these had a definite belief in the resurrection. It has been left for men of today to bring it into question."The preacher also made the point that justice demands a continuance of life that man may receive his just rewards and punishments. He referred to the cruelties of Julius Caesar and Nero, saying: "Does any one believe that when Nero died it was the end of that life? Or this modern Nero who let forth the dogs of war? What shall we say when death overtakes him? If that were to be the end for him would not the victims of the Lusitania have the right to declare unto God 'This is not just.'""I appeal to the intellect of man.
The fact that your order stands so definitely for the truth of the resurrection proves the truth of my contention. Every thinking man believes death is not the end. 'The grave,' said Victor Hugo, 'is not a blind alley. It is a thoroughfare and we can go down into it and pass through it to a land that is fairer than day. God has implanted in the soul of man the knowledge that there is no such thing as death.
In the Bible, the independent word of God, we have the proof of the resurrection. The New Testament but substantiates the Old. To the thief upon the cross we hear Jesus saying, 'This day shalt thou be with ting forth this same great truth to His disciples. St. Paul, the great exponent of the resurrection cries:

'Oh death, where is thy sting? Oh grave, where is thy victory?' John the Revelator has told us of the eternal city with streets of pure gold; but this does not satisfy us. The thing we want to know is: Is there something practical that will help us tomorrow? This glorious old story of the Easter gospel is a fine thing to listen to, but greater than hearing the story is to experience it in your own individual life. If you then be risen with Christ, set your affections on things above and not on the things of earth. Show it in the life you live. Let the resurrection spirit manifest itself in your every transaction. The great fact this morning is not the fact that you have heard of the resurrection but that out of your own experience, in the quiet of this beautiful day you can say: 'I know that my redeemer liveth and because He lives, I shall live also.'*Knights Templar of the Glendale

LEARNING

Learning, joined with true knowledge, is an especial and graceful ornament, and an implement of wonderful use and consequence. . . .
I would rather prefer wisdom, judgment, civil customs and modest behavior, than bare and mere literal learning.—Montaigne.
